

Please do not consider repealing the DO NOT CALL law in New Jersey. Unwanted phone soliciting has dropped from approximately 10 to 15 calls per night to close to nil. If you feel this law is too strict, and decide to repeal it, please supply me with your private phone numbers so I can pass it along to these solicitors. I know they'd be more than happy to speak to you and express their gratitude.